Dade County Girls Exemplify Character Present Warm Coats

These kind, young women conducted fundraising to purchase and provide warm coats for our precious children. Principal Tracy Blevins and I were honored to receive their generous gifts on behalf of our students.

THIS WEEK

Week 22, January 28, 2019 - February 1, 2019
Character Ed Quotes by Dade County Young Authors

Theme: Vision
Word of the Week: Mission

EQ: What is your mission in life?

Monday, January 28th - Board of Education Meeting at 5:00 p.m.

A mission is a life-long journey of self-awareness and achievement to obtain success for a better life. Madison Roden, DCHS

Tuesday, January 29th - CHAMPS

My mission is my purpose in life that I can reach by establishing goals and committing myself to reach them. Abby Moore, DCHS

Wednesday, January 30th Stakeholders Meeting at Noon, DCHS on KWN's Reading, Writing and Arithmetic at 1:00 p.m.

If you don't care about what you're doing you could write one million words and not find meaning. Say 1,000 things and not convince yourself. Without a mission, you won't care. Kaitlyn Hedden, DCHS

Thursday, January 31st - CHAMPS, Dr. Harris speaks at Greater Dade Business Owners Association (GDBOA) at Noon at Guthrie's

My mission is to show everyone who told me I'd never be anything, that I became something. Coop Lumpkin, DCHS

Friday, February 1st - Liz Huntley Here! Liz will speak to our students at DMS at Noon and DCHS at 8:00 a.m. Thanks to Martha Baker for writing a grant to purchase her book, More than a Bird, for our 8th and 9th grade students.

Liz Huntley had a vision for her future. Her mission was to finish high school and make the best grades she could. She was the valedictorian of her class. Dr. Jan Irons Harris

Thank you, Dade First, and Martha Baker for the grant that will provide Liz Huntley's book to 8th and 9th graders! Liz will be here Friday, Feb 1st to speak to DMS and DCHS students! Parents are invited to attend the session at DCHS at 8:00 a.m.
