

Message from the Superintendent Dr. Jan Irons Harris

February 3, 2020

Character Theme:

HUMILITY

Word of the Week: Humility

No one wants to be a friend with someone who's arrogant. - Arianna Clayton, Dade County Schools Young Author

Thank you, Martha Baker and Dade First, for bringing Liz Huntley to speak to our students!

Dade First Family Connections is holding its first Parent Cafe on Teen Internet Safety. The program will be presented by the Sexual Assault Victim's Advocacy Center. Parents and teens will learn safety tips on cyberbullying, internet trolling and harassment. They will discuss the consequences of inappropriate texting. The program will be held Tuesday, February 4th at 5:30 p.m. at the Dade County Public Library. This program is recommended for ages 13 and up or by parent discretion. No registration is required for this free program. Light refreshments will be provided.

STRATEGIC PLANNING COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT MEETING!

SAVE THE DATE!

March 3, 2020
6:00 p.m. - 7:30
p.m. at DCHS
Cafeteria

Liz Huntley is shown above in a sea of DCHS students! She spoke to our students about making good choices and inspired us to realize that we are More Than A Bird.

Our Yellow Jackets are now experiencing an art gallery every day at school! Davis Elementary now has an exhibit donated by The Besharat Arts Foundation. The halls were full of wonder-filled eyes and thoughtful questions as they passed these photos of other children from around the globe. Come by the front office to learn more about this program and its benefits. #togetherweclimb
