

Dade High School is now accepting applications for the 2022-2023 School Year for an Interrelated Special Education Teacher.

Minimum Requirements:

Valid Georgia teaching certificate in Special Education, highly qualified to teach the subject and/or class assigned as defined by the Georgia Professional Standards Commission; and ability to relate well to students, parents, and co-workers.

The teacher will be responsible for the evaluation and instruction of children with a variety of education needs and disabilities.

Qualified candidates should complete the application on www.teachgeorgia.org and send a traditional resume with 3 references to brentcooper@dadecs.org