

Wolverine Weekly Parent Edition
Volume I, Edition 14 of 2020-2021.

I wish you a peaceful Thanksgiving!

New Items:

- ★ Pictured: Rilee Privette and Bryson Shrader with wood carvings designed and created in Engineering. Character winners Lexi Lawson, Emma Hartline and Aila Gass. Superintendent Dr. Jan Harris with REACH Scholars Gabriel Yarbrough and Jerzee Crabtree, also Mrs. Beeler and community member Connie Webb at a recent Optimist Club meeting. Character winners Abbie Walker, Aubree Smith and Luke Rosenbalm.
- ★ The Parent and Student Advisory Boards are going to be updating the DMS Mission Statement. A mission statement tells the purpose of an organization. We want your input. Please answer a few questions to help us with this process. Link
- ★ Did you know that DMS is the only middle school in the entire nation to have an additive manufacturing partnership with NASA? Our kids have designed and produced pieces that are right this moment in orbit on the Space Station! How incredible is this?
- ★ Important!!! If your child would like to change from virtual school to traditional school or vice versa for 2nd semester, read this: How To . The deadline is December 4. Instructions are within the How To .

Thank you for trusting us with your children!
